Willer & Rhoads

Coats!! Coats!!

The Greatest Coat Values

We've Ever Been Able to Offer

Over Three Hundred Coats and More Coming--at Prices Never Before Touched in Value and Style, Heretofore:

$0.50

Black and Colored Boucle Coats, reduced from $15.00 and $20.00.

Women's Coats | Women's Coats

Boucle Coats, reduced from $22.50 and $40.00; choicest styles, in black and colors.

Women's Coats

Clever styles in Chinchilla and Boucle Coats, black and colors; reduced from $15.00

rade and Pass in Review

at the City Hall.

sioners will follow the inspection.

OPENS HEADQUARTERS

HAVE LARGE CLASSES

use of both.

The Way to Wealth

Depends on two words, INDUSTRY and FRUGALITY;

that is, waste neither time nor money, but make the best

The American National Bank

OF RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, with its efficient equipment, is always prepared to render you the

SECURITY AND SERVICE

that will materially assist you in conducting your financial affairs satisfactorily and effectively, and will aid you

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $1,600,000.00. RESOURCES, $8,800,000.00.

in practicing these two great factors of PROGRESS.

Children's Boucle and Chinchilla Coats at Half Price, $4.98 and $7.98 ea.

A big lot, comprising all this season's newest and best styles of Coats for children and girls-6 to 14 years of age. Second Floor-Women's Section.

ALLEGED CROOK

W. D. Timberlake, Caught in Insurance Man Declared Insane Richmond Department Will Pa-Baltimore, Said to Have Swin- After His Arrest for Threatdled Rueger's Hotel.

William D. Timberlake, fofty-three A few hours after he had been arrest-drawn on a Georgia bank. When it was returned unpaid, he had left the committed to some institution. Accommitted to some institution. Accompanied by Captain McMahon advised that a panied by physicians he was at once taken to Westbrook.

Which was promptly done.

Besides writing a threatening letter the divided his time principally between Richmond, Washington, Baltimore and New York. These cities were notified, and a close lookout was kept for him with the result that he was caught yesterday.

The was learned that the distribution of the police, wrote to Robert A. Lancaster, Jr., William H. Schwarzschild, Raleigh W.
Dodson and W. Fred Richardson.

Mr. Richardson said that he did not have the remotest idea why Smallman was caught yesterday.

HELD FOR MURDER

Heurico Police to Put Robert Kenny on Trial for Killing Abraham Smith.

Although the coroner's jury returned an open verdet, the Henrico police will hold lobert Kenny, colored, for trial on a charge of killing Abraham Smith, colored, and he will be given a preliminary hearing on Tuesday before Magnistrate H. S. Sunday.

Smith was killed on Monday afternoon hear Seven Pines by Kenny, who claimed it was a case of accidental shooting. The menulad been hunting and Smith, who was walking in front, received a load of birdshot in the back from which death soon resulted.

The coroner's jury, while inding that Smith came to his death at the hands of Kenny, declined to state whether accidentally or with premeditation, but from the circumstances surrounding the affair, the police think they have enough evidence to warrant a trial.

Lecture at High School.

The third of the series of lectures at the John Marshall High School will be given on Friday night by Frof. Fitshugh, of the University of Virginia on "Ancient Art." illustrated with stereoptical views, The lecture is open to the public and no ticket of admission is required. The lectures at the high school this season have been delivered, one by Dr. Thomas Walker Page of the university, on "What Is An American," and the other by Jr. A. E. Winship, of Boston, on "Education for Enfectency."

Captain Land.

Captain Lamb to Speak.

aptain John Lamb will deliver an adcase before R. E. Lee Camp, United Conleiate Veterans, to morrow might, to which embers of the camp and the public are often.

Files Sult in Henrico Court. for against trober; ... countries $8,000.
The Wilbur Mercantile Agency, of Boston, Mass., yesterday filed a suit for $190 against William J. White.

FIND SMALLMAN'S IS WANTED HERE MIND UNBALANCED

ening Richardson.

William D. Timberlake, fofty-three years old, said by Captain of Detectives McMahon to be a clever check flasher, who is wanted here on the charge of swindling Rueger's Hotel out of $50, while a guest there several days ago, was arrested yesterday in Baltimore, according to a telegram received by Chief of Police Werner last night. The message stated that Timberlake had agreed to return without equisition papers, and Detective-Serrequisition papers, and Detective-Sergeant Kellam left at once to bring him back for trial.

According to information received by Detectives Wiley and Duffy at his of-According to information received by Captain McMalon, Timberlake has served time in prison and on the roads in Georgia. Augusta is believed to be lake is said to have had forged letters of recommendation. One of them bore the name of L. C. Haynes, Mayor of Augusta, while the others bore the false signatures of prominent men, principally bankers. It was upon the company of Hartford, was arrested by Detectives Wiley and Duffy at his office in the Mutual Building. His conduct was regarded as so strange that, after a brief investigation, Wiley his home. In his possession Timberlake is said to have had forged letters of recommendation. One of them being mentally unbalanced. He was taken to Police Heasiquarters and later of Augusta, while the others bore the false signatures of prominent men, principally bankers. It was upon the ters of recommendation. One of them taken to Police Headquarters and later bore the name of L. C. Haynes, Mayor removed to hospital, where orthographically described by the carefully false signatures of prominent men, principally bankers. It was upon the man and friends, the lunacy commissioners.

enth. to Broad, to Twelfth, to Captol, and back to Teath. At the City Hall the battalion will pass in review before Mayor Ainslie and the members of the man and friends, the lunacy commissioners.

Humiliating failure will be our portion unless we can get this $15,000.

"Moreover, another effort will then have to be made a little later, to represent the battalion will pass in review before th presentation of these false credentials sion, which consisted of Magistrate that Timberlake induced the manage- James T. Connolly, Dr. P. W. Howle ment at Rueger's to cash his check, and Dr. A. G. Brown, at once examined

Besides writing a threatening letter A dragnet was then spread for the to Mr. Richardson, Smallman, accord-It was learned that ing to statements made by the police should have written him a threaten-ing letter. He added that he considered him a dangerous man to be at large, and swere out the warrant for

The last quarterly meeting of the board of Governors of the Virrinis Masonic Home will be held to-day at it o'clock at the home in addition to transacting routine business, the board will determine the form of Christmas entertainment. There are now seventy live children being cared for in this institution. STEARNES REPLIES IN SHARP WANTER Stunday-School Workers (at the risk visite is being conducted under the nuspices of the Sanday-School Institute of the Richmon Convocation at St. Paul's Church. The program, one step in advance of the program, one step in advance of the program, one step in advance of the program, of step in advance of the program, of step in advance of the program, of sets of weakington, was well attended, and ideas for teaching the child through the senses of seeing, feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story," feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story," feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story," feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story," feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story," feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram, Picture and Story," feeling and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story, and touching were elaborated upon. Mrs. John Loman gave the second lecture or "tow to Teach the Church Catechism by Diagram. Picture and Story."

Following the abrupt dismissal by the State Board of Education of At-terney-tieneral Williams's criticism of the summer normal schools, Superin-tendent of Public Instruction Stearnes yesterday morning issued a signed statement on his personal account, in which he says he would be glad to have the General Assembly review the have the General Assembly review the whole matter.

The statement follows:

"The State Board of Education on Tuesday published in terse form its reply to the statement of the Attorney-General. This, to my mind, should satisfy those who question the board's method of conducting the summer schools.

"If perchance there are any of our citizens who are giving serious consideration to the statements of the Attorney-General as to illegal or improper methods of conducting the summer normal schools. I personally should be glad for the whole matter to pass into the hands of an official investigating committee of the General Assembly where all facts, figures, and the testimony of every kind may be dispassionately considered."

MUSI GET $30.000

Richmond College Program Depends Upon Full Payment of Home Pledges.

APPEAL BY DR. BOATWRIGHT

Tells How Plans May Be Upset Through Failure of Subscribers to Make Good.

the fact that unless $30,000 is paid by January 1, on subscriptions hereto-fore made for the Greater Richmond College at West Hampton, the Insti-tution will lose part of the fund offered

The very serious result of the fail-ure on the part of the campaign com-mittee to collect unpaid pledges is em-phasized, for it may retard plans on which the college has been working for

President Boatwright's statement

"The five years have passed, and the extended time limit set on our conditional subscription of $150,000 by the General Education Board will expire the last day of this month. Meantime, over half a million dollars has been lege, and the woman's group, instead architects pronounced this group com-plete. Its spacious and beautiful halls speak for themselves. The president of one of our largest State institu-tions, who went through the buildings last week, is reported to have said that the erection of such beautiful and substantial college buildings marked the Greater Richmond College is not to cost, when ready for occupancy next September, merely the half mil-lion dollars originally contemplated, but a round million dollars in build-annual inspection. Immediately after the inspection the officers, clad in new winter uniforms, will parade the streets winter uniforms, will parade the streets of the city, headed by a brass band.

If the weather is not favorable the men of the different precincts will be inspected at their respective station houses.

Holds $15,000 in unpaid bonds of good and worthy people in our city. If the samount of money—just $15,000—tanks amount of money—ju

Following the review the officers will be dismissed to return to their posts. The monthly meeting of the commis-

Antisuffrage Organization Will Welcome All Who Cail.
The Virginia association, opposed to woman suffrage, has opened headquarters at 209 East Franklin Street. A welcome is extended to all, and literature may be obtained free of cost.
At the meeting of the national board of the association opposed to woman suffrage in New York on December 2, the Virginia association was represented by Miss Rutherfoord, Mrs. Gordon Battle and Mrs. C. M.
Ferrell, On December 4, when the same association was given a hearing before the House committee in Washington, Virginia was represented by Miss Rutherfoord, Miss Ellen Bagby, Miss Morris, Mrs. Hunsdon
Cary, Mrs. Charles Bail, Mrs. Louis Strauss, Mrs. J. W. Henson was unable to attend on account of fliness in the family.

Invites Legislative Probe Into Conduct of State's Summer Normal Schools.

Justices Qualify.

Justices of the Peace J. A. Purdy and R. C. Duke qualified yesterday before the clerk of the Hustings Court for their new four-year terms, beginning January 1, 1914. They were elected from Lee Ward on November 4.

Held as Fugitive.

Held as Fugitive.

Held as Fugitive.

Horace Jennings, colored, was arrested yesterday at the Main Street Statton by Patrolland Jones on the charge of being a fugitive from Justice in Hurkeville, Va., where he is said to be wanted for participating in a cutting affray.

In a statement issued yesterday, President F. W. Boatwright, of Richnond College, again calls attention to by the General Education Board.

The very serious result of the fail-

"Five years ago last month Richmond citizens subscribed $100,000 in a ten-day campaign to complete a $500,-000 fund for building a Greater Richmond College. It was a magnificent undertaking, gladly and handsomely achieved by leading business and professional men of our city. It was unfersional men of our city. derstood that the greater college should also include a standard college for women, the buildings of which should cost not less than $100,000. Time Limit Expires January 1.

in collecting money as we have in erecting buildings. Of the $350,000 subscribed in Virginia to secure the 150,000 from New York, only $320,000 as been collected. In other words, campaign committee must collect 900 in cash this month or lose eavily and fall to complete the great-Richmond was ever concerned. For Orders were issued yesterday by this for Police Werner to all members of his department to assemble in Nineteenth Street, South of Broad, this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock for their annual inspection. Immediately after $100,000 we subscribed, and the college holds $15,000 in unpaid bonds of good this money, for contracts have already of the unpaid pledges. On the other hand, a reasonable effort here and there, a little sacrifice perhaps, and a few additional gifts to make up for unavoidable deficiencies will bring

CHURCH TO GIVE SUPPER

Members of Second Baptist Congregation to Dine Together To-Morrow.

Plans have been made for a fellow-ship dinner for the members of the at 7:30 o'clock in the church building, Franklin and Adams Streets. According to the notice sent out the supper is to be something more than an occa-sion for getting the members of the congregation together. It is proposed to discuss the questions relating to the larger efficiency of the church and to ness End of the Church."

The responses received from invita-tions sent out indicate that there will be a large attendance.

$16.50 for Suits worth up to $30.00 $16.50 for Overcoats Worth up to $35.00

The sale is the most attractive we have ever held, and continues with unabated interest. Two styles of belted back chinchilla coats go on sale to-day--one is an Oxford mixture--the other is plain blue.

Special Price, $16.50 GANS-RADY COMPANY

ville to Address Board of Visitors at Meeting To-Day.

The first move in the fight for a cohe introduced in the General Assembly in place of the Early-Rison bill, which delegation from Richmond. Among the prominent men who will address the board in behalf of the bill are: Building Inspector's office has to approve every application for a sign permit, and the same restriction is the provided by the new law. This office Wyndham R. Mcredith, Rosewell Page, S. Dabney Crenshaw and Professor Lefevre, of the University of Virginia. Mr. Page will open the debate for the delegation. Secretary H. T.

Colvin, of the State Federation of Labor, with two other officers of the federation will speak by behalf of the federation, will speak in behalf of the present.

resent.

Letters and petitions from dozens of organizations favoring the co-ordinate college will be read by the delegation. An even larger body of alumni of the university, unalterably opposed to the location of the college within ten miles of Charlottesville, will appear before the board and urge unfavorable action. Aithough the draft of the new bill has not been published, it is understood to call for the building of a woman's college, not nearer than onederstood to call for the building of a woman's college, not nearer than one-half a mile to the University of Virginia, which shall have the services of its faculty, library and labratories. Separate class rooms, dormitories and gymnasium will be built for the wo-men. It is specifically provided that the two sexes are not to come in contact in their studies.

Fresh hope has been given the backers of the co-ordinate college by the report that former Speaker Richard E. Byrd, of the House of Delegates, whose bitter opposition defeated the Early-Rison bill in the lower house in 1912. has changed his views, and no longer

Big Delegations Go to Charlottes- Sees No Good in Adding Vonderlehr Ordinance to Statutes Now in Effect.

The Vonderlehr ordinance, designed ordinate woman's college at the Uni- to liberalize the electric sign regulaversity of Virginia will be made when tions, appears to have fallen on hard the board of visitors will meet at 11:30 lines. Building Inspector Butler sees o'clock this morning in Charlottesville no need for adding it to the present in open session. A large delegation of statutes on the subject, the Administhose supporting the movement will present for the consideration by the board a draft of the bill, which will board a draft of the bill, which will board a draft of the bill, which will be a board by the board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill be a board a draft of the bill, which will be a board a draft of the bill be a board a board a board a draft of the bill be a board a be introduced in the General Assembly in place of the Early-Rison bill, which was defeated in 1912.

Mrs. B. B. Munford, president of the State Cc-Operative Education Association, and a prime mover in the fight. tion, and a prime mover in the fight the city. As far as I have been able for a co-ordinate college, heads the approve or withhold an application at by act of the Council.

The ordinance was introduced in the

The ordinance was introduced in the Common Council at its meeting on Monday night and was referred to the Committee on Ordinances. It has the support of the Richmond Advertisers Club as well as of a large number of merchants. Several Councilmen have merchants. Several Councilmen have expressed themselves in its favor.

Marriage Licenses. Licenses to marry were issued yesterday by the clerk of the Hustings Court to John S. Blunt, Jr., and Mabel Reed Yarbrough; J. Shield Soyars and Louise H. Cole; Munroe H. Dunn and Connie May Fergusson; T. Bentley Ellington and Goldie A. Hall; John H. Palmer and Lizzle Jones, and James Duncan Smith and Alice Coleman Nelson.

lie Warm in Well Wish-

"The work is one which deserves the support of all good citizens," says the Governor, while the Mayor is no less outspoken in his endorsement.

More substantial token of approval was given the seals when the two officials made generous purchases with the purpose of using them on official communications. They are setting the example to all intelligent citizens who are willing to fire a shot in the antituberculosis crusade in this small way. "I write to express the hope that the sale of Red Cross seals this year may be larger than ever before," said Gov-ernor Mann. "The work which is being Sunday-School Workers Gather at St. Paul's to Receive Instruction.

Three large classes yesterday attended the training school for Sunday-school workers, which is being conducted under the auspices of the Sunday-School Institute of the Richmond Convocation at St. Paul's Church, The model class for the primary departing day, was followed according to schedule. The model class for the primary depart. Lord will prosper the work.

In sending in an order for 500 seals. Mayor Ainslie wrote: "I cannot too highly commend the noble efforts of those people who are selling Red Cross Christmas seals for the financial bene fits of the campaign against tuberculosis, and I wish them success this "Tuberculosis was the cause of the loss of 321 citizens of Richmond in 1912, an average loss of one a day from this disease. Much has been done to check the ravages of tuberculosis, but we have yet but little more than scratched the surface. Tuberculosis being largely the result of bad living conditions, we are here offered a large field in which to dispel the ignorance from which they proceed."

In every corner of the State the little

Red Cross Christmas seals, Intended to be affixed to the back of mail matter during the holiday season, are being offered for sale. They cost 1 cent each.

HEARS SPEEDING CASE

Justice Crutchfield Reserves Decision After Hearing Testimony.

W. H. Casey, a motorman, was arraigned in Police Court yesterday morring on the charge of recklessly driving a street car and colliding with an automobile, owned and driven by John Bagby, on December 3 at Second and Broad Streets, Many witnesses testified that the car was going at from twenty-five to thirty miles an hour.

"By actual measurement," said Mr. Bagby on the witness stand, "my machine was thrown thirty-six feet. I cannot explain how I escaped death or injury."

Justice Crutchfield took the case under advisement and said he would render a decision on Tuesday.

Van Johnson, colored, was fined $25 for stabbing Charles Penn.

Robert Wimbish, colored, was sent to jall for four months for stealing shoes from the Stephen Putney Shoe Company (Inc.), The same charge against Moses Holmes, also colored, was dismissed.

Governor Mann and Mayor Ains- Distinguished Biologist to Deliver Lecture at Rich-triumphant success, to the joy of every friend of Richmond College and every friend of Richmond College and every resident of our city who is interested in higher education."

the war against tuberculosis, is given ture on the James Thomas Foundation at Richmond College to-night. This is letters written to the central committee.

ture on the James Thomas Foundation at Richmond College to-night. This is letters written to the central committee. many men famous in their chosen fields but none of these specialists has stood so far above his fellows or has aroused such wide popular interest in than men have heretofore known about the secrets of life processes and the "life principle" gives every one an interest in his work. In the lecture this evening, he will discuss the physical and chemical processes involved in the fertilization of the egg, or in other words, he will explain how he has been able by simple laboratory processes to produce from the female germ cell a living individual. He has thus far confined his experiments principally to certain forms of ocean life, and has produced perfect specimens of tadpoles, starfish, sea urchins, etc.

Although born in Germany, Dr. Loeb has lived and taught in the United States so long that there remains in his accent only a pleasant suggestion of his foreign birth. The public is cordially invited to the lecture.

In the results. A total of $5,960 in bonds have been bought by the Richmond depositors.

PERKINSON FINED $100

Former Policeman Pleads Guilty to Assault Charge.

Walter J. Perkinson, a former member of the police force, pleaded guilty in the Hustings Court yesterday to having committed an assault appon Claude M. Johnston, and was fined $100 by Judge Richardson.

The indictant and the police force, pleaded guilty in the Hustings Court yesterday to having committed in with attempted murder. The charge frew out of a diculty between the ex-policeman and Claude Johnston on November 3, in the course of which Perkinson fired his revolver at Johnston. After a conference between attorneys for both sides yesterday, it was agreed to permit Perkinson to plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery. Lena Woodson was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 for assaulting another colored we-man.

You Don't Have to Send Away for it---

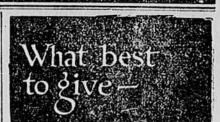

SANSARIAN SANSARIAN SANS

Wholesale Plumbers' Supplies. Phone Monroe 61-62.

FAMILY WASHING

Rough Dry, 6 cents per pound. No bundle less than 25 cents.

The Royal Laundry Richmond's Best and Largest.

Have you ever thought of the ideal nature of a savings account as an expression of CHRISTMAS

No other gift is so acceptable. Nothing could fit any purse better.

Nothing is so easy to select.

Young folks especially will appreciate a savings account in this big, safe bank. Throughout life it will remind them of your thoughtfulness, growing more valued with each year.

Whether you have much or little to spend, a savings account is best. Visit our savings department. It will take but a moment to do "your Christmas shopping" to the best possible advantage.

FOR SAVINGS" Bank

Statement of the Richmond Branch Shows an Extensive

Business in Past Two Years. Postmaster Allan gave out yesterday the first statement of the business operations of the local postal savings bank for the past two years. The most striking feature of the statement, which was prepared by Cashier Melton, is the apparent popularity of the government's bank with foreignborn citizens of the United States

Since the bank was established in Richmond on September 30, 1911, a Hearty commendation of the little Bed Cross Seals, which are being sold everywhere in the State to help finance the war against tuberculosis, is given by Governor Mann and Mayor Ainslie in letters written to the sold at Richmond College to-night. total of 407 accounts have been opened.

aroused such wide popular interest in researches as Dr. Loeb.

The fact that Dr. Loeb has set himself the problem of finding out more than men have heretofore known about the secrets of life processes and the

Paragraph Pulpit

Relieving in Jesus, we do not understand to consist in believing any speculative theological doctrines about him If its repair work, and you haven't the parts needed, see if we have them before you send away.

We have lots of odds and ends. lived and character he exhibited; in McGraw-Yarbrough Co. such love to God and man, such devoself-sacrifice, such patience and gentle-ness, such bravery and fidelity as he everywhere taught and exemplifed.— Unitarian Publicity Committee.

> G. M. Co.'s Pearl I. C.

Roofing Tin

It's the standard by which all other roofing tins are measured.

Gordon Metal Co.

14th and Docks Sta. Richmond, Va.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY FOR POSTAL SAVINGS FUNDS